MEDIA RELEASE November 25, 2004

Sydney International Blue-Gold and Top 100 Ranking... For our First Ever Red Blend!

Fresh from the success of winning the AQ Australia Trophy Best Dry Red Wine at the 2004 Clare Valley Wine Show our new release 2002 Stringy Brae Cabernet Sauvignon Shiraz has been awarded not only the highest level medal at the recent Sydney International Wine Competition but also had the added distinction of being placed amongst the Top 100 highest pointed wines of the 2005 competition.

Simply put, this means that when tasted alongside the appropriate food, this wine was placed in the Top 100 of all wines tasted at the 2005 Sydney International Wine Competition we set out to make a food wine and we have hit the mark with this ranking showing we are in the top 5% of all wines tasted!

It is a brand new product in the Stringy Brae range and a real inspiration for the Stringy Brae team

"It's really the icing on the cake for us and such a thrill to receive international recognition for a blend of Clare Valley Cabernet Sauvignon and Clare Valley Shiraz"

The 80% Cabernet Sauvignon 20% Shiraz blend has proven to be a great sensation with both the consumers and the wine judges. The first ever release of this wine, not only is it a great accompaniment with food it's a fantastic price too!

The 2002 Stringy Brae Cabernet Sauvignon Shiraz retails for $16.99
